Dear future Host Family,

Hello! My name is Bridget and I am so grateful to have this opportunity to meet you and become a part of your family through this exchange program. I would like to use this letter to introduce myself and explain why this experience is so important. A little about me: I am currently 17 years old and live in a small community outside of a major city in the midwest of the USA. People describe me as funny, charismatic, and intelligent. I like to make people laugh and connect with my community.

I live with my mom, dad and two sisters, Katarina (14) and Elinor (11). We travel a lot as a family, and since I was young, I've always found it fascinating to travel and explore new cultures. I love learning about local history and how stories and people around the world are similar yet different. I am passionate about reading, music, sculpting, and exploring nature. I'm not an athlete, but I like to exercise outdoors. In my free time, I read, watch movies, go shopping or hang out with friends. My favorite place is the local nature park, where I take walks around the lake. I look forward to sharing these hobbies with you and your family and learning about yours!

In school, my favorite subjects are art and history. Art allows me to be creative and do repetitive tasks, giving me a relaxing break. History is interesting because it is about how people are connected and how they affect each other. One thing that always fascinates me is how interwoven different historical events are, even if it seems like they should be several hundred years apart.

Living with you is an exciting opportunity for me, as it provides a unique opportunity to live in Sweden and have the chance to gain a deeper understanding of customs, language, and lifestyle. My mother was born in Sweden and moved to the United States to study medicine. They got married and moved to Indiana, but I grew up hearing and speaking Swedish all my life. We visit the family at least once a year. Nevertheless, I have always wanted to have the opportunity to live in Sweden and benefit from my citizenship. With this exchange year, I will use this valuable opportunity to understand the language and become a global citizen. I also want to assure you that I am committed to being a respectful and considerate member of your household. I value communication and believe it is important for balanced living. I am adaptable and eager to help with household chores or responsibilities. Let me know your expectations, preferences, and any house rules you may have.

I am excited about the adventures and experiences that lie ahead during my stay with your family. If there is anything specific you want to know about me or if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me. Once again, thank you for opening your home to me. I'm really looking forward to getting to know each and every one of you and creating fun memories together.

Sincerely,
Bridget
