Hi future host family and school!

I can't wait to meet you all, the reason why i would love to go is because i have always dreamed of traveling the world, i wanna learn about new cultures and ways, i want to meet new people and get out of my comfort zone for once.

Currently i attend a secondary school in a town nearby and i always take the bus to it, which usually takes me about 1 hour. In my free time i enjoy hanging out with friends, reading, baking, watching movies/series, going to concerts and taking a walk outside once in a while.

My family life isn't what people usually expect, i have a mom and a dad who got divorced when i was 10, i also have a stepmom, she and my dad aren't married so she isn't officialy my stepmom but i consider her to be one. I also have two older brothers who are twins, one lives with my mom and the other lives with my dad, i am the only one that switches houses every week to be with both parents. At my moms house we have a dog and at my dads we have 2 cats.

In the beginning i can be a shy/more quiet girl around new people. But once i have gotten to know you i can also be really talkative so this means that i am comfortable around you. I like going out to the movies or shopping and hanging out with friends, but i also love my alone time sometimes. I also really love animals so that would be a big bonus point if you have those nearby, but it's also okay of you don't.

I hope i can learn a lot of new things, like your culture, language and more. I hope i'll also learn to value the little things in life more but i'm sure that will be just fine. I think i will be a great addition to your family because i like learning new things but i also love showing people things from here, i am respectful and open minded but also very attentive, i care a lot about the people around me even if i don't know them very well. I like meeting new people but i am also very modest.

I really hope you will choose me and we can have a wonderful year together!

Kind regards,
Yara
