Dear host family,

My name is Cäcilia, I'm 14 years old and from Austria, with both Austrian and German roots. I have always been curious about other cultures and languages, and I feel especially drawn to Sweden because of its beautiful landscapes and the special feeling I get about the country.

I love music – I play classical guitar, enjoy singing, and like making music with others. I also enjoy reading, especially in English, dancing ballet and modern dance since I was six, and doing sports like snowboarding, swimming, and hiking. I am creative as well and like drawing realistic pictures.

People would describe me as reliable, trustworthy, and independent. I know I need a lot of sleep and like my routines, but with some planning I am happy to join activities. I value my family very much and have a few close friends I share strong bonds with.

I am really looking forward to this exchange, to improving my language skills, learning more about Sweden, and becoming part of your family.

Best regards,

Cäcilia
