Hej dear Host Family!

My name is Amelie, I am 15 years old and live in Bavaria, Germany.

I'm a person who at first may be a bit more introverted and shy, yet always friendly and openminded. And once I get to know people better I become more comfortable and start being less hesitant and much more outgoing. I asked my friends to describe me and they said that I am empathetic, pensive, clever and loving and I'm very happy that my friends perceive me as such. (Though I would like to add funny as well, if I may. ;))

Together with my mom, my grandma and our two cats, Amy and Maja, I live in a small town in the country side, so I'm not really used to the big city life but I wouldn't mind experiencing it.

When I was 4 my parents got divorced and... there was a bit of a drama going on about custody, but that's all settled now and I sometimes see my dad on weekends, which is why adapting to new surroundings is fairly easy for me.

I don't have any chores at home, which I'm very grateful for and I do know that I'm very privileged in that aspect but I would of course be happy to take on any task given to me and help around the house. In my free time I like to read fanfiction about whatever has my mind occupied at that moment, like a newfound favorite show, movie or band. It's a great way for me to escape reality when life gets too stressful and it helps me unwind after a long day. I also really like being creative in all different kinds of ways, whether that be drawing, crafting, sewing, making bracelets, trying out fun baking recipes, you name it!

Also not to be forgotten is my love for musicals, there's just something about the combination of singing, dancing and acting that has my heart. I truly couldn't live without music. Singing is one of my biggest passions and while I don't strive for a career in that direction I do get great enjoyment out of being a member of my school's choir. It's fun to sing with my friends, practicing together for small concerts and having inside jokes about the songs we perform. (And the perks that come with it are very welcomed too, of course. ;)) Speaking of school, it does correspond with another interest of mine. My favorite subjects are French and English as I've always been drawn to learning new languages. I have started many a course on Duolingo, Japanese, Italian, Spanish, but there's one language that stuck, that hasn't lost my interest; Swedish, of course! :D It's such a melodic, sometimes funny, yet always beautiful language and I get so incredibly excited when I hear it somewhere and am able to understand at least a few words. I'm still very much a beginner and I for sure know that my pronunciation as of yet is horrible, but I'm working on it and can't wait to improve my skills in the country of origin.

The reason I want to study abroad is I want make new experiences in another country, get to know a different culture and hopefully make lots of new friends. I also see this year abroad as a chance to improve my capability of being independent instead of relying on my parents too much.

Thank you very much for taking the time to read my letter, I hope I made a good first impression and I'm already counting down the days as I can't wait to meet you and spend an amazing year with you.

Best regards, Amelie :)
